

WHIMSEA - GINGERLAND, NEVIS

WHIMSEA

OVERVIEW

The artistic flair of the owners is evident throughout this traditionally crafted villa. From carefully picked bright colors, to amusing and tasteful decorative details that relate to Nevis' wildlife, and the attention to comfort and elegance, Whimsea is truly enchanting.

At 1,200 feet above sea level you will enjoy the cool trade wind that blows all year round and the stunning 180-degree view of the Atlantic Ocean with neighboring Caribbean islands framed in the background. The quaint country lane leading to the villa is lined with charming West Indian homes and ends shortly above Whimsea guaranteeing quietness and privacy. Access to all the island attractions and necessities is no further than a 20 minute drive.

The casual and relax island vibes carry throughout the house with a floor plan inviting relaxation and enjoyment of the surroundings. A large open plan kitchen and living/dining area extends to the covered patio through folding doors, seamlessly blending the indoor and outdoor spaces.

All the bedrooms are furnished with handcrafted mahogany beds and large armoires and both master bedrooms have walk in closets. The bathrooms are individually decorated with different mosaic tiles. The master bathrooms have extra large showers and louvered doors opening to the green foliage of palms.
